v.

PACIFIC PREMIER BANK, N.A.,

Garnishee.

CASE NO. 2:24-mc-00088-JNW

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

This matter comes before the Court on Plaintiffs' Motion for Judgment on Answer of Garnishee Defendant and for an Order to Pay. Dkt. No. 7. Upon review of 1 Plaintiffs' motion, the record, and the law, the Court has identified three issues that 2 require attention before judgment can be issued.

3 First, Plaintiffs' Proposed Order states that "Garnishee Defendant Pacific
4 Premier Bank, N.A. was indebted to Defendant/Judgment Debtor Greyrock Drilling 5 & Piledriving LLC in the nonexempt amount of $26,575.58." Dkt. No. 7-1 at 2. But 6 Garnishee-Defendant Pacific Premier Bank, N.A.'s Answer states that Pacific
7 Premier Bank, N.A. owed no debt to Judgment-Debtor Greyrock Drilling & 8 Piledriving LLC. Dkt. No. 5 at 2; see also id. at 3 (indicating Defendant's property or 9 effects in Garnishee-Defendant's possession); see also RCW 6.27.270 (authorizing 10 court to order garnishee to deliver up defendant's personal property or effects in 11 garnishee's possession or control). The Court DIRECTS Plaintiffs to clarify this 12 issue or, alternatively, amend their Proposed Order to ensure accuracy.

13 Second, Plaintiffs' filings are inconsistent as to post-judgment interest. While 14 their Proposed Order calls for the Court's judgment to bear interest at 12 percent, 15 Dkt. No. 7-1 at 2, their Proposed Judgment states that "Plaintiffs are not entitled to 16 post-judgment interest," Dkt. No. 7-2 at 1. Meanwhile, the Writ of Garnishment 17 provided for a "Per Day Rate of Estimated Interest" in the amount of 8.2 percent.
18 Dkt. No. 4 at 2. The Court DIRECTS Plaintiffs to clarify the amount of post-19 judgment interest sought, in accordance with state law. See 6.27.090(3) ("The 20 amount must be based on an interest rate of twelve percent or the interest rate set 21 forth in the judgment, whichever rate is less.").

22 Third, Plaintiffs' filings appear inconsistent as to the calculation of costs.
23 Plaintiffs seek a garnishment judgment for $26,575.58 and a separate cost

1 judgment for $387.50. See Dkt. Nos 7-1, 7-2. But the writ of garnishment that 2 Plaintiffs sought, which the Court issued, provided for a total garnishment amount 3 of $26,575.58, which included not only a judgment balance of $24,391.60 and 4 interest of $1,796.48, but also costs in the amount of $387.50. Dkt. No. 4 at 2. In 5 other words, Plaintiffs may be double-counting costs. The Court DIRECTS Plaintiffs 6 to clarify or explain this apparent issue or amend their request to ensure accurate 7 cost calculation.

8 In sum, the Court ORDERS Plaintiffs, within FOURTEEN (14) days of this 9 Order, to show cause why the Court should grant the requested relief despite the 10 above-listed issues or amend and re-file their Motion for Judgment to rectify these 11 issues.

12 It is so ORDERED.

13 Dated this 6th day of March, 2025.
